Children's Home Society.

Do you want to be happy on Christmas Day?

Do you want to make others happy on that day?

Listen! You can do both by sending a donation just now to the Children's Home Society of Florida, to help them to provide homes and happiness and Santa Claus for many homeless, abandoned and helpless babies and children from all over the State of Florida. Big or small, send your donation to R. V. Covington, Treasurer, Room 6, Board of Trade Building, Jacksonville, and tell him you saw this notice in this paper.

The Tax Books of the Town of San Mateo City for the 1910 Assessment will be open beginning Nov. 1st for the purpose of receiving taxes.

HAROLD W. HILLS,
Tax Collector.
Town of San Mateo City, Fla.

The public school closed yesterday for a Christmas vacation. Miss Farris will spend her holidays in Jacksonville, and Miss Anderson at her home in Green Cove Springs.

The V. I. dance Thursday night was fairly well attended by the home folks and a few from Palatka who came over by automobile. Mrs. Bailey at the piano left nothing to be desired in the way of music, and Miss Robinson at the punch bowl helped some.
